

Enhance your event with a keynote speaker

Looking for ways to update and motivate your stakeholders on the latest insights in disaster preparedness, risk reduction and resilience?

Our collective of global speakers will remove the jargon and assumptions that come with disaster planning and replace it with motivated actions for positive change.

We deliver onsite or online keynote speaking to CEOs and Executive Teams, employees, members, customers, suppliers and Boards.

Common topics include:

- ◆ 4Ps to building a resilient ready organisation
- ◆ risk reduction is the new must have capability
- ◆ why people are the foundation of resilience
- ◆ shared responsibility: what's my role?
- ◆ don't let disaster goodwill ruin your reputation

“Renaë has presented at AIDR conferences inspiring audiences on the important role small businesses play in building resilience.”

Amanda Leck
Former Executive Director, Australian Institute for Disaster Resilience (AIDR)
